

Grass Roots Code for Adults in Youth Football.

We are here to enjoy ourselves... Win, Lose or Draw. To help make football more enjoyable for all I should:

-  Come to training and matches with a positive attitude and put the well-being of children first.
-  Recognise examples of respect, effort and good play, as well as achievement.
-  Appreciate grassroots football should be about children playing and having fun, not solely about results.

We always treat others as we would like to be treated. To give respect at football I must:

-  Always use respectful language and actions.
-  Not argue with the referee, coach, and officials, and accept their decisions about football.
-  Avoid coaching from the sidelines as a spectator, recognising this is likely to cause uncertainty and confusion across the team.
-  Encouraging children to show fair play by shaking hands with opponents and being kind, whether we win or lose.
-  Stay in designated spectator or technical areas.
-  Tidy up after myself and take care of the facilities we use.

We embrace our differences; football is a game for everyone. To be inclusive at football I must:

-  Show zero tolerance for discrimination of any kind.
-  Report anything that concerns me via the relevant channel.
-  Treat people based on their character, and nothing else.
-  Accept that we all bring our own personal perspectives to the game.
-  Not exclude anyone because of background or personal characteristics.
-  Strive to give fair playing time to all children.

We are a team, on and off the pitch. To help us bond as a team I should:

-  Remember we are “One Team” helping young people enjoy football.
-  Encourage players and celebrate their effort.
-  Avoid criticising players if they make a mistake.
-  Discourage cheating, complaining and time wasting from everyone.
-  Accept that my child may not always be able to play in their favourite position, they may need to take a break to give someone else playing time.

We all have a role in safeguarding young people and vulnerable adults. To help keep everyone safe I must:

-  Accept it is my responsibility to know if my role in football places me in a position of trust.
-  Speak to my club or league Designates Welfare Officer if I am unsure if I am in a position of trust.
-  Understand appropriate boundaries must be in place, both online and during face-to-face activities.
-  Let a club official know if I see anything that looks unsafe.
-  Be aware of who the first aiders are, and where the nearest Automatic External Defibrillator is located.
-  Keep appropriate boundaries by:
 - Always putting the well-being of children first.
 - Being friendly but professional.
 - Encouraging children to review their own progress.
 - Raising concerns about a child to the Club Welfare Officer if they display behaviour not usual to them or which causes concern.
-  Follow the ‘Physical contact and young people: Guidance for grassroots football’ guidelines. If my role requires physical contact with a child, I will:
 - Ask the child’s permission and explain the type of, and reason for the physical contact.
 - Keep physical contact to skill development, first aid, harm prevention or celebration of success or comfort in times of distress.
 - Ensure another responsible adult is present for the duration.
 - Remember physical touch should be culturally sensitive to a child.
 - Not participate in training, warm up or cool down sessions with children (including my own) to protect them from accidental physical harm.

I understand that my club, league or county FA may take action, that could include:

-  Giving me a verbal warning.
-  Asking to me to meet with the club or league designated Safeguarding officer.
-  Asking me to meet with the club committee.
-  Asking that I complete an IFA education course.
