

Kelvin Youth Football Club

Kelvin Youth Football Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The Club believes that it is important that staff/coaches/volunteers and parents/guardians associated with the Club should, always, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, everyone is always encouraged to be open and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the Club with Barry Young Head of Academy or William Laird Club Welfare Officer.

Kelvin Youth Codes of conduct players Form 2021/2022

I Promise to:

- Represent Kelvin youth Football Club in an appropriate manner at all times while wearing the club logo including training sessions, match days, events or trips.
- Encourage my team mates in training and on match days and treat them with respect.
- Not use inappropriate language, violence or any form of bullying towards anyone within the club or opposing teams players/managers or spectators.
- Treat all equipment provided by the club or league with respect.
- Listen and pay attention when Committee members or Coaches are trying to explain something.
- Refrain from arguing with a referee during matches, I accept that the referee's decision is final and I agree that should a decision need to be questioned; it will be done so by the coaches.
- Refrain from arguing with coaches during training sessions, the coaches will make decisions, these decisions are final whether they are right or wrong.
- Have fun at training, learn new things, perform to the best of my ability and most importantly....Enjoy football!
