

Safeguarding the vulnerable Exeter and District Basketball Association takes our role of safeguarding of any vulnerable participants seriously, it is recommended that there should be at least one suitably qualified safeguarding / welfare lead for each club, if you do not have a suitably qualified official, please contact us as we will be running suitable courses during the season. All floor officials assigned by EDDBA will have received accredited safeguard training.