

I confirm that the court referred to has been booked and is available with the days and times indicated and that the clubs home games may be entered on your fixture list in the knowledge that the court will be available.

it is not possible to change kit colours during the season without the permission of the executive committee. teams are expected to ensure that any kits are compliant with basketball england rules.