

Social Camógie

- Social Camogie is for women over the age of 25 and who currently do not play any form of competitive camogie at any level (including senior, intermediate, and junior) They cannot be a registered active player.

- Participation waivers are used so that participants confirm that they are taking part in this activity at their own risk. All individual participants should be advised to have the necessary personal medical cover in place should they sustain an injury, such as personal accident insurance for social camogie. The club accepts responsibility for the players that take part and will ensure that waivers will be used and signed by each player that takes part. Waivers are in place to protect clubs and should be used even if insurance measures are in place.

PÁDRAIG SÁIRSÉIL CLG strongly recommends that each player has their own personal accident cover when participating in this event.

PÁDRAIG SÁIRSÉIL CLG accepts no responsibility for injuries that may occur.

By reading and agreeing all participants accept they are participating at their own risk.

Participants are not covered by the GAA or Camogie Injury Benefit Fund whilst training or playing in this event.
