This years Co-op Draw is tinged with sadness as Billy Norris, a founder member passed away at the end of 2023. His lifelong commitment to the GAA in Piltown, Kilkenny and to the many clubs that have benefited from the Co-op draw format was immense. His enthusiasm for ticket sales was a joy to behold and meant he personally sold in excess of 4,500 tickets over the lifetime of the Draws. His contribution will be forever appreciated.

CUMANN LÚTHCHLEAS GAEL COISTE CO. CILL CHAINNIGH

As Cathaoirleach Cumann Luthchleas Gael Cill Chainnigh, is mó an onór dom cúpla focal fáilte a scríobh.

The Kilkenny Hurlers Co-op draw is now in its 42nd year. This year's draw is tinged with sadness. In the past couple of months, we lost Billy Norris one of the original founding members of the Hurlers Co Op Draw. Billy was an inspiration to all and his loss was felt by many. We also lost Jim Conway and Jim Kearns whose attendance at draws down the years was constant.

These three men helped with the fundraising for their respective clubs throughout the years and their contribution will never be forgotten, and I hope it will inspire future generations to come.

The Hurlers Co Op Draw is a great opportunity for clubs to raise badly needed funds, while also enhancing the relationship with Kilkenny GAA. The funds will continue to be invested into our facilities long into the future.

The draw committee is led by Gerri Hickey. I would like to thank Gerri for her fantastic work in organising the draw. I extend thanks to the committee but also the ticket sellers and anyone involved in promoting the draw in their clubs, in and outside the county.

This year's draw will again have fabulous prizes including Cars, Cash and Club Draws to the tune of over €125,000. I encourage you to continue your extraordinary support for your own Club and UPMC Nowlan Park/MW Hire Dunmore. Tickets, again this year, will be available through your club or online.

Wishing you the very best of health, happiness and success for your club in the year ahead.

P.J. O Cionnaith, Cathaoirleach, CLG Cill Chainnigh

Dear Supporter

We are well into another year and plans are in place for Hurlers Co-Op Draw 2024 as I am certain they are for all your clubs.

Firstly, I am sad to say, we have lost three good friends this year – Billy Norris (Piltown GAA), Jim Conway (Mullinavat GAA) and Jim Kearns (Ballyhale GAA). They were with the Hurlers Co-Op Draw since the very early years and were actively enthusiastic in their support and work. They are missed very much. But as Billy would say to me 'We have to keep ahead of the posy'.....so back to work. I am sure, if possible, they are with us.

It is now time to get the Hurlers Co-Op Draw Team together once again and take another step forward in assisting and improving our Clubs and County Teams to continue achieving their goals.

We have to do it for ourselves.

As we have learnt when we all work together by giving of our time, energy, skills, support and hard work we can all be winners.

Let us all keep going by making 2024 another successful year for The Hurlers Co-Op Draw.

This year the prize money is €125,000. All cash prizes. (with a choice of cars as outlined and wonderful holidays).

In a time when costs are rising everywhere, the Hurlers Co-Op Draw ticket is still only €50 for 5 draws with a prize fund of €125,000. A minimum of €25 is earned by your club for every ticket sold. This figure rises to €33 as sales increase. When you buy a ticket in this 'value-for-money' draw, you are supporting your local community and county.

The more tickets a club sells the higher their income. This is evident in the development of the clubs throughout the county both on the pitch and in their facilities.

Please continue to support your club in 2024 and contribute to the development of your community and county.

Good Luck!
