

Rock Celtic FC Conditions

- Insurance: Rock Celtic FC Senior Team is covered under the club's public liability insurance and personal accident policy. The cover only applies after a claim under any other form of personal insurance and is subject to a policy excess. The club strongly recommends that all members should arrange their own personal insurance.
- Conduct: Members must follow the instructions of the coaches in charge. Misbehaviour will result in a warning to the member and persistent or gross misbehaviour will result in the member being suspended for a time specified by the committee. Members will be informed in writing of such an occurrence.
- Club Rules: Members/ parents/guardians agree to abide by the rules and Code Of Conduct of the Club, NEFL, DDL and the FAI. Players/parents/ guardians should refrain from showing any physical or verbal aggression towards coaches, referees, officials and other players during the match or at any time. Parents/guardians /supporters are not permitted at anytime on the sidelines at home games.
- Sessions: The coaching session will be of duration specified by the coach.
- Matches: It is the responsibility of the member/player to arrange to get to and from the match venue. We ask members/players to remember that they represent themselves, their families, Rock Celtic and ask them to act in a proper manner at all times.
- Weather: Rock Celtic FC shall not be held accountable should activities be suspended or cancelled due to bad weather.
- Fees: The membership fee for a senior player is €150. Failure to pay membership will result in the applicant not being eligible to sign or play for the team in the season. If there are any circumstances where membership cannot be paid at the due date, please contact the Club Secretary.
- Lost or Stolen Items: Rock Celtic FC is not responsible for any items lost or stolen at any time. This includes both at training sessions and matches (home or away).
- Photos: I hereby consent to the club using any individual or team photograph that I may appear in as a Rock Celtic player for promotional use.

The decision of Rock Celtic FC Committee is final in all matters relating to the above conditions.
